The Promenade Series of Piano Music

New and completely revised, authoritative editions of the master composers.

One of the most ambitious music publishing programmes of today has just been completed. Called 'The Promenade Series of Piano Music', this venture brings together the 56 most requested piano classics. The titles of the series span 200 years, from Bach to today. The result is a range of great music for learners and advanced students, and of immense value to teachers.

Beautifully printed

Every title in the Promenade Piano Series measures 9 x 12 inches, a size which ensures that the music rests easily on the stand and is comfortable to read. The music itself has been reproduced from engravings made by master engravers. Printing is to the highest standards on fine quality paper.

Authoritative

The Series has been conceived and compiled by Eugene Weintraub, one of the most respected of music editors in the USA. A graduate of the Juillard School, he has written for many publications including the New York Times.

Low cost

Although many titles in the Promenade Series may be found elsewhere as single editions, many are often only available in costly anthologies. Considering their fine presentation, the price of the individual titles is agreeably low: only 35p or 50p a copy, for titles between 8 and 16 pages.

Sample available

A sample copy which includes all the titles in the series is available from the publishers. Simply complete the coupon and this will be sent to you.
